

Memorial
In Loving Memory
of
Annie W. Clay

LESAY of Love

Church in the Home
Loved Young People
Thursday, August 25, 1983

10:00 A.M.

114th Street Church of God In Christ

11400 Wilmington Avenue, Los Angeles, Ca.

Elder J.W. Mayfield, Officiating

Mixed Emotions

636-3549
Florence

Steel in 1329
1806 W 9081

1239 E 120th

569-7046

100

Active Pallbearers

Dea. J. Horton — Eld. H. Goodlow
Minister S. Wade — Bro. R. Meraz
Bro. J. Edwards — Bro. L. Spears

Honorary Pallbearers

Bro. J. Horton — Bro. R. Meraz
Bro. L. Sears — Bro. J. Edwards
Minister S. Wade — Elder H. Goodlow

Directors in Charge

Adams Funeral Home, Inc.

"Your Community Funeral Directors"

501 East Palmer Ave., Compton, Ca.

Telephone: (213) 636-9864

Order of Service

Processional "Nearer My God To Thee"

Song "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" Choir

Scripture Elder Smith

Prayer Elder P. Wilson

Song "God Has Done Great Things" Choir

Acknowledgements N. Gillis

Song "I'll Fly Away" Choir

Remarks (2 minutes each please)

Obituary N. Gillis

Eulogy Elder J.W. Mayfield

The Parting View

Recessional

All cars driving to cemetery - drive with bright lights on

INTERMENT

ANGELES ABBEY MEMORIAL PARK
Compton, California

Annie W. Clay was born on October 20, 1902 in the city of Natchez, Mississippi to Julia Mitchell and Charles D. Woods. She was given the name of Annie. She attended school in Jackson, Mississippi. She left Mississippi and went to Oklahoma where she met and married Charles W. Duncan. To this union four children were born, two boys and two girls.

She left Oklahoma in 1922 and went to Arizona. In 1926, she moved to Los Angeles. She raised her family as a single parent. She was a determined and persistent mother, encouraged and helped all of her children attain an education so that they all became a credit to both their mother and the community. She loved life and living.

In 1944, she married Andrew Clay, after her youngest child finished high school. She understood people and accepted them and understood the frailness of their natures. Her life was accentuated by her humanitarian activities. She believed if she helped others the Lord would bless her. She garnered the love, respect and admiration of her children.

She came to the Lord in 1952 under the leadership of the late Mother Ollie Bonton. In 1966, she joined Revival Center Triedstone Church of God in Christ, under the late Bishop J.D. Smith. She was a faithful worker in the Church. She loved the Lord with all her heart. She was devoted to the Mother's Board and gave to it her wholehearted support.

She was loved by her grandchildren and great grandchildren, and admired by all who knew her.

After a short illness, she parted from this life to be with the Lord on Sunday, August 21, 1983 at 9:45 p.m.

She leaves to mourn her loss, four children and their spouses, Julius Duncan of Compton, Ca., Charles Duncan of New York, New York, Florence Beatty of Compton, Ca; eight grandchildren; seventeen great grandchildren; five nieces; two daughters-in-law; two sons-in-law; and a host of other relatives and friends.